

Texas Open Skat Championship

Texas ISPA Tournament

5 series by the ISkO - 12 rounds/session

$100 entry fee for all 5 sessions (includes 2 lunches)

Rudy's BBQ
1125 N. Loop 337, New Braunfels

Saturday, February 8, 2020 is 3 sessions

Sunday, February 9, 2020 is 2 sessions

Each day Registration @ 8:30 am
Play Starts @ 9:00 am

After the U.S. Open Skat Championship in Houston Texas, the following activities will be available:

1. The club and bar will remain open for those wishing to watch the Super Bowl.
2. Monday, players can explore the Houston, Texas area, as there are many sites to see.
For those who wish to play skat, the Texas East area will have its weekly game at the Burton Short Stop at 12400 FM Rd. 390 in Burton, Texas, which is a quaint town approximately 1 hour west of Houston on highway 290. The game starts at 3:00 and ends at 6:30. If interested, please contact Conway Waak at 979-451-1506 (call or text). More information can be found about this game at texasskat.com under "Where to Play and Contact Information".
3. Tuesday, the Houston Skat Club will host its weekly skat game.
For more information contact:
Horst Gebert 281-881-0761.
4. Wednesday, will be a travel day to New Braunfels.
5. Thursday, there will be a skat tournament at the following location in New Braunfels:
Rio Terra
2294 Common St., New Braunfels.
Game starts at 12:00 pm
Contact Ron Morrison for more information: 210-260-1453.
6. Friday, will be a warm-up tournament:
Rudy's BBQ
1125 N. Loop 337, New Braunfels.
ISPA Warm-Up Tournament
2 series by the ISkO - 12 rounds/session
Registration 12:30 pm
Start: 1:00 pm
7. Saturday & Sunday is the Texas ISPA Open Skat Tournament.
Rudy's BBQ
1125 N. Loop 337, New Braunfels. (for more info see above)

Contact Conway Waak for the Monday skat game in Burton: 979-451-1506

Contact Horst Gebert for the Tuesday skat game in Houston: 281-881-0761

Contact Ron Morrison for all other skat tournament questions: 210-260-1453